TRADITIONAL RAJASTHANI CRAFT

Gota Patti Saree

Gota Patti is one of Rajasthan's most cherished embroidery traditions, using fine metallic ribbon to build intricate floral vines, paisleys, and borders on delicate fabric. Every Gota Patti saree at Yuvti is hand-finished by skilled artisans who layer gold-toned gota ribbon stitch by stitch. The result is a saree that carries generations of heritage craftsmanship while staying easy to drape for weddings, festivals, and everyday celebrations.

HANDCRAFTED ARTISAN DETAILING

Gota Pati Saree

Often spelled Gota Pati, this embroidery style folds and stitches thin gold or silver ribbon onto the fabric surface, catching light with every fold of the pallu. Yuvti's Gota Pati sarees are made in small batches, so each piece reflects genuine handwork rather than machine printing. From subtle borders to fully embellished drapes, our collection offers a Gota Pati saree suited to everything from an intimate puja to a grand sangeet night.

LIGHTWEIGHT FESTIVE DRAPE

Chiffon Gota Patti Saree

A Chiffon Gota Patti Saree brings together the fluid, featherlight drape of chiffon with the shimmer of traditional gota work, making it a go-to choice for daytime weddings and warm-weather festivities. Yuvti's chiffon sarees sit softly against the skin, pleat with ease, and are finished with gota detailing along the border and pallu that catches the light beautifully. It's a piece that feels effortless to wear yet unmistakably festive.
